Meet monthly at the Littlerock firehall, 10828 Littlerock Road SW (larger of the two meeting rooms). Please verify the meeting by either going to the chapter web site and the Events page, or call 360-459-4759.

The next general meeting is scheduled for February 4th, 7 pm at the Littlerock firehall, 10828 Littlerock Road SW, Olympia, WA.

From your President:

Let me start out by thanking everybody for their confidence in me. There are a lot of things I'd like to do with the chapter from work party's to camp outs.

I encourage all to give me your ideas on how we can help the chapter grow. We have rendezvous coming up in March; hope to see a lot of you there. We have a sign up list for the tables.

There is a lot of work to do on the trails due to weather damage. Let's get out there and clean them and remember to fill out your volunteer hours.

I would like to have clinics for those who are interested in them. If you have a skill or technique that can be helpful to the members please share them. Please send your photos to Chris so he can update the web site.

Thank you for your support.

Events for 2014

The Rides Committee has come up with a list of both day and overnight rides for the coming year. There are no rides scheduled until May however but you should have plenty to choose from even so. Come to the February general meeting to find out what those rides will be and when.

There is one "Equestrian Courtesy Day" scheduled in Capitol Forest this year. It will be on July 19th out of Fall Creek Campground.

There are several other equestrian events taking place in the forest this year as well. They include Orienteering, endurance rides and a Stockman's Coalition Ride.

The first work party of 2014 just took place on January 18th on the Equine Loop. Work consisted of spreading Gravel. Thanks to Karen Johnson, Sue Koch, Chris Jellison, Deborah and Norman Green as well as others.

On January 22nd another work party to install the manure bin at Mima Falls Campground will take place. The work party is small since DNR will be on hand with heavy equipment. No request for volunteers was sent out on this one.

The Great Gravel Pack-In is coming on March 29th. It's in the Middle Waddell this year and folks are being asked to park on the Tacoma Trail Cruisers property (128th out of Littlerock to Waddell Creek Road. At the intersection of Waddell Creek and Sherman Valley roads turn left and drive another 1/2 mile. The property is on the left.) Meet in the Middle Waddell Campground at 9:00 am for a safety meeting before heading out. Lunch is provided. Bring work gloves, water and raingear.

Treasurers report as of 1-17-2014

2014 Current membership paid is 38 members, with $24 unpaid dues to collect. Bank Balance as of 1/17/2014 shows the chapter solvent. The BCHW will be reimbursing all receipts for any grant purchases. The 2013 Chapter Financials were emailed on January 20th to BCHW.

Further in you will find the Director's Report which I forgot to get in the newsletter last month. And some of you like to take the horses and mules to the east side of this great state of ours. So you will also find information on dealing with snakebites. That won't be a topic at Rendezvous but perhaps in 2015. And don't forget to read the meeting minutes from last month (and November as well.)

Capitol Riders of BCHW Meeting Minutes

Littlerock Fire hall

January 7, 2014

Incoming 2014 President Norman Green called the meeting to order at 7:06 pm.

Fifteen members in attendance with one guest – Bill Batten who came with new member Kathy Moore.

Work Parties – Karen Johnson; Karen said a work party is planned for January 18th on the Capitol Forest winter equine loop with Scattercreek chapter members. Meet at the Appaloosa club on Waddell Creek Road SW, 9:30 am. Bring rakes as we'll be spreading gravel. Personal equipment should include gloves, boots and raingear.

The question was asked if the chapter has a first aid kit and the answer was No, we do not. Chris Enrico said the kit needs to follow the prescribed guidelines (USFS). The group agreed that we need to put one together.

Connie Bailey mentioned a class on how to deal with emergencies and Deborah Green stated the kit should have supplies for the animals as well.

Karen said that BCHW Rendezvous is coming on March 14-16 in Ellensburg. It was mentioned that the Super 8 Motel is honoring the price as shown in the BCHW Trailhead News. The Holiday Inn is unknown but the Comfort Inn has a price of $80 for a king and $84 for 2 queens. Be sure and ask for the BCHW rate.

A question about table reservations was asked and it was stated that more information on how to make reservations will be coming in the next edition of the BCHW Trailhead News.

Traci Koch said it would nice if the chapter were to reward Karen Johnson for her hard work as director by paying for her table. A motion to purchase a round table that seats eight for $40 was made and approved.

The table decorating contest was mentioned since we were talking about tables. Deborah Green volunteered to take on putting something together.

Karen Johnson said the chapter needs to consider a donation to the auction at Rendezvous. The trail saw with embossed scabbard was mentioned that we've donated several times before. Jeff LaBreck said it cost $110. A motion was made and approved for Jeff to purchase the saw.

Karen went on to say that BCHW is asking chapters to prepare a presentation of their accomplishments for the past year for Rendezvous. We need to send the materials to Louise Caywood by February 1st.

Karen stated that the chapter needs to build the manure bin at Mima Campground, in the day use area. She asked if a date this month would work and that Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday works best for DNR staff. The membership decided that January 22nd or 23rd would work for them with a 9 am start time. This needs to be confirmed with DNR.

Treasurer Report – Traci Koch (outgoing 2013 chapter Treasurer); Traci went over the bank balance as of the end of 2013. The chapter is solvent.

The two outstanding checks made out to BCHW were brought up. Deborah Green (2014 Treasurer) said she'll investigate.

Dean Hartman said he no longer wants to be on the checks. Chris Enrico (2014 chapter Secretary) said he would do it. The chapter needs to remove both Traci Koch (2013 chapter Treasurer) and Dean Hartman, and add Deborah Green (2014 chapter Treasurer) and Chris Enrico (2014 chapter Secretary).

President Norman Green brought up two receipts submitted for payment. Lincoln Creek Lumber bill submitted by Jeff LaBreck for manure bin supplies. Karen Johnson told the group that the BCHW Grant Committee will release money to the chapter who will then reimburse Jeff. Karen Johnson submitted a bill for coffee. A motion was made, seconded and approved to reimburse Jeff and Karen.

President Norman Green discussed the unfilled chapter committee chairs:

Trail Boss – Much discussion about the position. Other chapters have trail hosts (ride on their property or use it as the meeting point for a ride.) Connie Bailey mentioned the chapter “Ride Anytime” list. Chris Enrico brought up the rides database. Drag riders were also mentioned. Unfilled.

Work Parties – Norman Green volunteered.

Rides – Norman asked Dean Hartman to put a ride list together. Discussion of last years list and how many people went.

Membership – Connie Bailey

Alternate Director – Sue Koch

Legislative – Chris Enrico

LNT/Education – Unfilled. Norman asked who had attended the LNT course and two people raised their hands.

New Business – Norman mentioned a saw certification course. Karen Johnson said it will be May 17-18, led by Trygve Culp (BCHW Education Chair) somewhere along SR 410 on the west side. An email update will be sent out.

The need for a garage sale location was mentioned. The Littlerock sale is the first weekend in May. Dean Hartman said it may not happen as the woman who ran it (she worked at the Littlerock Post Office) has retired.

Connie Bailey said that shopping through iGive is a good way to donate to the chapter. Even searches raise money.

Rest Areas were mentioned as a way to raise money. There is a two year waiting list. You must be on site for three days, 24 hours a day.

Karen Johnson said that Legislative Day is January 27th.

The LNT display at the Washington State Horse Expo at the Clark County Fairgrounds was mentioned and that volunteers are needed. February 14-16. Contact Louise Caywood, saddledupw@aol.com.

Dean Hartman and Connie Bailey were given “Thank you” awards from the chapter for their volunteer service. Carrie Russell and Laura Kingman were not present to accept their awards.

Meeting adjourned at 8:14 pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Chris Enrico

CHALLENGES AND SOLUTIONS

National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA)

Gar Abbas, Cowlitz Valley District Ranger, explained some of the challenges surrounding NEPA. NEPA is a Congressional Act that has been around since the 60’s that requires any proposed project that would cause ground disturbance to get an impact study, public opinion, and incorporate that information into an educated decision on whether to proceed. Andrea Durham, Cowlitz Valley Ranger District Wilderness Coordinator, explained that it is expensive to pay specialists to prepare a study.

Pacific Northwest National Scenic Trail (PNNST)

Jon Knechtel, Pacific Northwest National Scenic Trail Association (PNTA), gave an update on the effort to build community awareness and planning involvement for the PNNST through meetings along the route from Montana to the Pacific Ocean. First meeting will hopefully be in October next year. Plan should be completed in about 2 years. It is a slow process.

Presenter Presentation

Darrell Wallace, BCHW Executive Director, and Bob Gish, BCHW President, presented the public land meeting speakers and guests with BCHW calendars and thanked them for their participation.

Jason Ridlon, Alpine Lakes Trail Riders Director, congratulated everyone on coming together to get projects done.

Mike McGlenn, Whatcom County, explained the importance of VIP rides and that he and BCHA members took the Wilderness Society on such a trip. He outlined the successes that resulted from that trip and encouraged others to do trips. At BCHA - minimum tool analysis and streamlining the process are both still on the table, in order to use volunteers more efficiently with the Forest Service.

Is it time to look at reinstating the statewide VIP Ride? VIP Rides should come out at the top of things we CAN DO. Trygve Culp encouraged all chapters to host local VIP rides with their local land managers.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Jane Byram invited everyone to an LNT planning meeting at the Holiday Inn Express after the meeting. Comments or suggestions about this meeting should be given to Darrell Wallace.

CLOSING COMMENTS

Bob Gish, President, noted that Chapter support has always been the focus of the BCHW membership, instead of support of the State organization. Even less financial support is given to the National support. This organization (BCH) needs to be funded at all levels. An organization can only be as effective as the support it receives from all members. Bob thanked everyone for their attendance and participation.

Meeting adjourned at 3:15 p.m.

Meeting notes respectfully submitted by Janelle Wilson, Secretary.

Snake Bite

Christopher Hanson, DVM, ACVS Mount Vernon Veterinary Hospital

For those of you that travel with horses into Eastern Washington or other parts of the country where rattlesnakes are prevalent, a little knowledge and preparedness is a good thing. Rattlesnakes tend to be more active in warmer temperatures and the heat of the day. Rattlesnake encounters are less common on early season rides. For the most part snakes want to be left alone and will leave if given the chance. Most human bites are not accidental and are a result of human approach or handling. Horses too can be curious, but may also accidentally stumble across snakes when hobbled or tied. When riding if you stay on trails snakes are less likely to be obscured by brush and noticed before they are stumbled upon. Snakes supposedly can't strike more than one-half their length. The average Washington rattlesnake is only 1-2 feet long, typically maxing out at 4 feet, so if not approached, they are unlikely able to strike from a distance.

The majority of snakebites in horses are either on the face or lower leg. Most bites are not witnessed or detected immediately. Typically the swelling from the bite may be the first sign noticed. The punctures or fang marks may never be located. Thankfully 25 % of rattlesnake bites are dry, meaning there is no injection of venom. However, the possibility of infection from the punctures is still possible. An immediately fatal dose of venom for a horse is not likely, due to their large body mass. The typical result of venom injection is local digestion and destruction of tissue. This results in severe swelling and later tissue and skin slough. For leg bites this can be problematic if there is tissue damage that extends to joint or tendon. For face or muzzle bites the immediate threat is swelling that can obstruct the nasal passages and make breathing' difficult or cause asphyxiation. Tissue slough is also a problem and often results in the need for long term wound care.

Older first aid measures that cannot be recommended are tourniquets, incision or suction devices. Tourniquets may further compound the local tissue destruction by restricting blood flow. Incision or suctioning is ineffective in retrieving venom. For leg bites a padded lower leg bandage is recommended to minimize excessive swelling, it may also limit venom spread, without the tourniquet effect. For face bites with excessive nasal passage swelling and difficulty breathing, passing a length of lubricated garden hose up each nostril may provide a sufficient airway. In either case plans for evacuating the horse and seeking veterinary attention should be made. It is important to stay calm and keep the horse calm. If in the backcountry, walk the horse out slowly. Running or excitement will raise blood pressure and may increase the spread of venom. If there is a limited airway, this will be aggravated if the horse is made to move too quickly.

Veterinary care will typically consist of supportive care, antimicrobials, airway establishment if necessary and typically wound care dictated by the tissue slough in the following days to weeks. Antivenom has not been practical in horses, it is of questionable effectiveness, is not readily available in sufficient quantity and is typically cost prohibitive. So enjoy these hot dry days in the backcountry, make sure you have bandaging supplies in your first aid kit. You're more likely to need them for wounds, but will have them if needed for a snakebite on the leg. And add a couple of 12-18 inch pieces of smooth ended garden hose to your kit.

And for the human members of your party:

A rattlesnake bite seldom delivers enough venom to kill a human, although painful swelling and discoloration may occur. However, all rattlesnake bites should be considered life threatening. When someone has been bitten, time is of the essence. If possible, call ahead to the emergency room so anti-venom can be ready when the victim arrives.

If a rattlesnake bites a person, do the following:

- Keep the victim calm, restrict movement, and keep the affected area below the heart level to reduce flow of venom toward the heart.
- Wash the bite area with soap and water.
- Remove any rings or constricting items; the affected area will swell.
- Cover the bite with a clean, moist dressing to reduce swelling and discomfort.
- Shock is responsible for more snakebite deaths than the actual venom is. To treat for shock, keep the victim quiet and maintain his or her body temperature. If the victim is cold, wrap them in a blanket; if hot, cool them off by fanning.
- Get medical help immediately.

Things not to do:

- Do not allow the person to engage in physical activity such as walking or running. Carry the victim if they need to be moved.
- Do not cut or suck the wound, do not apply ice or cold packs to the wound, and never use a tourniquet.
- Do not give the victim stimulants or pain medications, unless instructed by a physician.
- Do not give the victim anything by mouth.
- Do not raise the bite area above the level of the victim's heart.
