

Back Country Horsemen of Washington Tailgate Safety Briefing Work Party Members

If the land manager does not review a Job Hazard Analysis (JHA) or conduct a safety meeting, Back Country Horsemen of Washington (BCHW) work party leader(s) must conduct a Tailgate Safety Briefing before the BCHW work party. The following aspects of this project that are potentially hazardous were discussed with the BCHW work party members during this briefing.

Date: _____ Location: _____

Project: _____

Work Party Leader(s) _____

Discussed aspects of this project that are potentially hazardous:

The undersigned BCHW work party members affirm that during the BCHW Tailgate Safety Briefing discussion on the BCHW Tailgate Safety Checklist and aspects of this project that are potentially hazardous was conducted before the BCHW work party.

Signatures - work party members must sign and include phone number.

_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

Record additional signatures and phone numbers on back of form.

Please send into land management agency either after the work party or once a month if you have several work parties planned. Retain a copy for BCHW records.

Mailing Address:

Attn: _____

E-mail address: _____

Sources of information/reference used for briefing:

BCHW Tailgate Safety Checklist _____

JHA _____

PPE _____

Other (specify) _____